Tyler - Evans, Inc. Open Factory to Manufacture Transformers and Coils

Workers Needed at New Site in Frostee-Sno Building

Paul Evans, president and general manager of Tyler-Evans, Inc., announced today that his firm will open a new factory in the Frostee Sno building 857 Main st., in Antioch and that the wheels of the industry will start turning Monday.

Applications for employment will be received Saturday and on Monday at the factory which is on the second floor of the Frostee Sno building.

The firm was incorporated on March 30, to manufacture transformers and coils, which will be used in the radio and television industry. The work will involve coil winding and assembly of the transformers.

Evans has been in the electronic component manufacturing business in one phase or another since 1937, being associated with Westinghouse and Sylvania in Pennsylvania for a number of years.

He has been a resident of Antioch for the last year and a half, residing on Victoria street. His family comprises the wife and three daughters, the youngest of whom, Karen Jane, was born two weeks ago Sunday in Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan. The older daughters are Elaine a pupil in the grade school, and Paula, 4.

Evans is looking forward to expansion of his business.

Mrs. Nuytens is experienced in this business. Mr. Nuytens is employed by RCA Victor in Chicago and Mrs. Nuytens was engaged in the record business before they moved to Center Lake Woods four years ago.

They are at present putting in stock and fixtures in a room facing Main st. and enter through the door that leads off the entrance to the garage.

Lick Cancer Next is Cry After Broadcast of Polio Serum Find

Let's Lick Cancer Next. This was the word that went out in Antioch this week when it was learned that as the result of public contributions a serum was discovered that will prevent poliomyelitis.

A search is being made to discover a way to eliminate cancer.

Mrs. Robert Berg, co-chairman of the Cancer drive said that only $125 has been received toward the $675 goal in Antioch township.

"The contributions are coming in slowly," Mrs. Berg said, "but I'm anxious that they speed up."

The chairman said that she didn't have enough letters to completely canvass the fifth precinct and she is asking people of that area to send in their contributions to her regardless. Her address is 1007 Spafford st., Antioch.

Mrs. L. V. Madden is serving as education chairman of Antioch.

Information is constantly being given out that if cancer is detected soon enough the chances are that the patient can be cured. The purpose of the year-round activity is to teach people how to detect cancer early enough. The cancer fund goes to support this education fund. Films on cancer detection are loaned and doctors will give talks before clubs on the subject.

Tax Deadline Friday

Tomorrow, Friday, April 15, is the last day for filing annual income tax reports. Those who do it at this time are advised by the revenue officers to check carefully for errors and see that the W-2 statements are attached. Perforated address cards also were sent and must be returned. If after the report is mailed errors are discovered, the person is asked to await notification by the district director's office.

Election on Tuesday Finds No Opposition To Present Officers

Cunningham, Garland, Vos and Glenn, Incumbents, Only Candidates

There will be no change in the membership of the village board unless there is an unexpected write-in campaign Tuesday at the election. Murrill Cunningham, George F. Garland, and Edmund F. Vos are candidates for re-election for the four-year term and Ernest H. Glenn is seeking reelection for the unexpired term which he is filling in the place of Edgar Simonsen who resigned.

Voting will be from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the village hall.

This is the last of the three elections which have called voters to the polls in Antioch. The first was the township; the second, the school, and now it's the village itself.

A good vote will reflect the interest the people have in village government if nothing more than giving approval to those who are serving.

Smith Boy Struck By Car, Badly Hurt At Channel Lk. Saturday

When he darted in the path of an oncoming motorist on Rte. 173 at Channel Lake Saturday afternoon, William Smith, 6, of the Smith Hotel suffered broken legs and other injuries shortly before noon Saturday. Gaylord Leib, 46, of rural Antioch, driver of the eastbound car, told Sheriff's Deputy Harold Scheskie that he was going about 35 miles an hour and skidded his car 82 feet before coming to a halt after the impact.

The boy was playing with other children in the hotel yard and ran out onto the highway.

William was treated at the scene by a physician and then taken to Victory Memorial hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Chuck) Smith and grandson of Howard Smith.

Truck Crash Causes Blackout of Power and Lights in Antioch

Antioch was blacked out from one to two hours last Thursday evening as the result of the local substation of the Public Service Co. being put out of commission.

When a Kenosha transport truck with a load of automobiles backed into a power line pole at Park ave. and Main st. about 7:30 p. m. it caused two wires to come in contact with each other and cause a short which knocked out the substation.

It was necessary to restore the power piecemeal, with the result that while some parts of the area got lights in about an hour others did not get electricity for 1 hour and 50 minutes.

Storekeepers used candles and flashlights and homes were lighted similarly during the blackout. Many persons missed their favorite radio and television programs and many a refrigerator was defrosted. Young men and boys became rowdy down town taking hub caps and breaking one window.

Sequoits Lose to Grant In Two-hitter 5 to 1; Play Wauconda Friday

The Antioch Sequoits were limited to two hits by Tom Boscow and as the result received the short end of a 5 to 1 score at the hands of the Grant Bulldogs here Tuesday afternoon.

The local team was blanked until the fifth inning when Boscow became a little wild and walked three men and hit another in forcing Antioch's only run across the plate.

A fast double play cut short an Antioch scoring threat in the fourth inning.

The Bulldogs scored three in the first, one in the fourth and another in the fifth, two of the runs being made on stolen bases at home.

It was the second victory for Grant in conference play and the second loss for the Sequoits who were humbled by Grayslake there last Thursday 15 to 4. The game was moved ahead because of Good Friday services.

Antioch's next game will be with Wauconda here tomorrow and the Sequoits will go to Glenbrook Tuesday.

Serum Expected to Banish Dreaded Infantile Paralysis Soon

Polio contributions over the years has paid off.

Announcement of the success of the new Salk polio vaccine was made at 9:20 a. m. Tuesday and immediately wheels were set in motion to vaccinate the children of the nation first.

First and second grade pupils of the Antioch Consolidated Grade school will be taken in three buses to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan Monday leaving at 1 p. m. for vaccinations at 1:45 p. m.

Letters gaining permission of the parents of the 152 youngsters were sent out Tuesday for return by today. There is no charge.

Emmons School Dist. 33 is scheduled at Victory for 2 p. m., and Millburn, Dist. 24 at 2:30 p. m.

Lake Villa first and second grade pupils will go to St. Therese at 2:30 p. m.

St. Peter's School first and second grade pupils will go to Condell Memorial hospital on Tuesday.

It is expected that 3,356 children will be inoculated for poliomyelitis on next Monday.

News of National Importance

News of the success of the serum was of national importance Monday. Actually its success was anticipated to the extent that arrangements already had been made for distribution of the vaccine and a schedule set up at hospitals for giving it. It is 90 per cent effective in preventing paralysis from polio and it is expected that in years to come polio will be as scarce as diphtheria.

The younger children are given the shots first because they are most susceptible to the disease. Older children will receive it later and adults who are for the most part immune, will receive it last, but at their own expense from physicians.

The program was mapped by the Lake County Polio Foundation, the Lake County Medical Society, and the county superintendent of schools.

The Salk vaccine is named after Dr. James E. Salk of the University of Michigan, who was responsible for its discovery. Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., of Ann Arbor Mich., described the vaccine as "safe, effective and potent."

County Gets New Fair Ground and Place for Farm Bureau Offices

The Lake County Fair Association and the Lake County Farm Bureau have worked together in getting a permanent site for the county fair. It is the 60 acres at Rtes. 120 and 45 near Grayslake, owned by Matthias Beemsterboer.

The Farm Bureau paid $30,000 for the land and in turn leased it to the Fair association.

Having the grounds, the fair organization was able to get $69,500 state aid in building exhibition and administration buildings and build a race track.

In turn, the Farm Bureau will get a home of its own. At present it is using an elevator building owned by the Soo Line at Grayslake. The tract of land obtained is described as being opposite the Country Squire. It does not include the farm house and barn.

The fair this summer will still be at Wauconda. It originated in Antioch but moved for lack of space.

Antioch V. F. W. Buys Site for Club House

Sequoia Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has purchased two acres of land on Rte. 59 for the site of a club house. The lot is situated on a hill south of the Ackerman channel near the Jack Flanagan home. Plans call for a cement block building with brick face. The organization is seeking donations in material and labor.

Austin Kersten recently was elected commander of the post along with James Mueller, senior vice commander, John Sherbert, junior vice commander, and Robert Strang, chaplain. Installation will take place on May 7.

Economic Highlights

As long as civilization has existed, men have attempted to forecast the future. Palmists and crystal ball readers and other such performers have plied their arts for centuries, and are still doing it.

In this complex modern era, a very different category of forecasting has been developed and it has flourished like the green bay tree. It is based on the principle of using more or less proven methods and data to anticipate what will happen in the business and economic sphere in months or years to come. It has been said that every major business decision is an exercise in forecasting in a double sense, for it concerns both the future of the economy as a whole and the future of the individual business involved. Thus, the owners and managers of businesses of almost every kind and size are constantly engaged in some variety of forecasting. Many large enterprises employ economists and statisticians for that purpose. A number of the government departments periodically issue forecasts concerning prospects for employment, agricultural sales, business volume, consumer demands, and so on.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States has published a booklet on the subject. Designed primarily to help business executives make their own economic forecasts, it lists the major techniques in general use. It also explains some of the pitfalls, and tells where past forecasts have gone wrong and why. A prime example of that the United States was due for a cataclysmic depression in 1954. Dr. Clark is a distinguished economist, and his views got world wide attention. His error was in relying entirely on a mathematical formula which proved fallible.

The Chamber's booklet lists six current types of economic and business forecasting.

Economic Models. These are mathematical analyses of past relationships, such as sale and national income, from which prediction may be made. The danger lies in assuming that the relationships have been measured accurately and will remain unchanged.

Sector Analysis. The economy is divided into key sectors—inventories, foreign trade construction, agriculture, etc. Each is analyzed and a summary made to get the outlook as a whole.

Money and Credit. These forecasts are based on the idea that major recessions have occurred here only after a decline in the money supply.

Barometers or Signals. Indicators such as new incorporations, stock prices, hours worked, and others are considered as signals of turning points, either up or down.

Simple Trend Projection. The forecaster plots production, shipments or sales over the past few years and from them projects next year's trend. One catch is that sometimes trends are extremely difficult to recognize.

Appraising Expectations. The forecaster takes into account the opinions of executives, salesmen, consumers and others. Obviously, in the course of doing this he may be exposed to guesswork and hunches.

Any kind of forecasting, the booklet observes, is more of an art than a science. It believes that the words "watch out for surprises" should be written across the pages of every forecast. That seems to be excellent advice.

Grass Roots Opinion

TALLASSEE, ALA., TRIBUNE: "It is no small feat to try to explain to a customer that the government can print envelopes cheaper than a tax-paying printer because the government, with its vast resources, including the printer's tax money, can simply overpower him in bidding. It seems to make little difference to some customers that this is socialism, pure and simple, and that the money they think they are saving on the printed envelopes will be siphoned off in some other way by the eternal need of the government for more taxes."

BEDFORD, IND., DAILY TIMES-MAIL: "On a nationwide basis the states pay an average of $8.99 into the Federal treasury for each dollar returned under direct grants and 'matching fund' projects. These figures would indicate that the Federal government in its role as a collection and distribution agency is depriving the states of billions of dollars per year which might be administered more effectively at home."

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

You know, this report to the U. S. A. House of representatives by N. Y. Congressman Gwinn—as I read it in the papers—is going to take some of the gusty wind from the sails of the liberal and socialist element that keep telling us of the grandeur of TVA. The report gets down to figures and facts—it erases the claims we been hearing for 15 years, that this socialist venture is what the doctor ordered, and that the region would blossom and grow and show the Nation what happened when "the people" take over.

The report shows what does happen—but it has no resemblance to a flourishing green bay tree, it is vice versa.

Amongst the nearby 10 southern states which use privately produced electricity, Tennessee now ranks fourth in population, the same as 15 years ago. In farm receipts it has slipped from fifth to eighth place. In retail sales it has slumped from second to fifth spot. In postal receipts it slid from third to fourth. In the value of manufactured products the decline has been from third to fourth position.

In the meanwhile 108 million new bucks were poured into the venture. Without this 108 added million put in circulation there, the situation would look less healthy—more sickly. The other 47 states need get out their pencils and scratch pads—somebody is getting roused. It is a flimsy affair—but brothers and sisters, expensive, and all states share therein.

On each April 15 a part of that bad taste can be traced back to TVA's door.

Yours with the low down,

JO SERRA

We Are Decadent—But!

According to an AP dispatch, Pravda, the newspaper which speaks for the Kremlin, recently gave the Soviet machine building industry a sharp scolding "and said it could learn a lot from Detroit and Pittsburgh." A short time before that Party Secretary Khrushchev told Soviet farmers that they could learn much about corn and hog culture from Iowa.

It is official Communist doctrine that capitalist America is a decadent nation in which farmers and workers are ruthlessly exploited. But, when it comes to actual problems, it seems that the communists have to look to us decadent capitalists for solutions.

We Lead Two Lives

There are 963 weekly newspapers in Canada, with a total circulation of almost 2,500,000. The January issue of a monthly letter issued by the Royal Bank of Canada was devoted entirely to them and their significance. It said: "Singly or taken together these weekly newspapers have a great influence on the thought and action of our people."

"Everybody, in a sense, lives two lives, one in a small and the other in a great circle. He belongs by birth or choice to various intimate groups, like his family, his neighborhood, and his cluster of friends. He is also a member of the whole society of Canada, and he is living within an interdependent system of nations. The weekly newspaper belongs to his intimacy."

The same thing is true of the thousands of United States weekly papers and small-city dailies. They are running a record of the community, and of the individuals, families, enterprises and institutions which created, forged and maintained it.

Conference Festival To Climax Music Year In Antioch April 25

Climax of the year, musically speaking, will be at Antioch Township High School gymnasium on Monday evening, April 25 at 8:15. At that time five hundred top music students of Northwest Conference schools will combine to present the annual Conference Music Festival. The program, to which the public is cordially invited, will be led by two nationally famous music educators. These are Dr. W. D. Revelli, director of the nationally known University of Michigan bands; and Marvin Genuchi, leader of the famous Blue Jackets Choir of Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

There is no doubt that this will be one of the most satisfying and rewarding experiences of the year to both the musicians and the audience. Those attending the concert may anticipate a colorful, spectacular and moving experience. Tickets are available from members of the music departments of participating schools.

Numbers to be performed will include selections by the band, chorus, girls glee club and boys glee club. High point of the concert will be the combination of all choruses and band in an arrangement of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

General chairman of the music festival is Louis Chenette, Antioch High School music director. Instrumental chairman is Theodore Chopp of Glenbrook. Vocal chairman is Marian Gerlach of Glenbrook.

LAKE VILLA

Circle No. 2 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday evening with Mrs. Peter Hollocker at her home.

Dr. Ray Bond, superintendent of the Chicago Northern District of Methodist Churches, will be at the Community church on Sunday, April 17 at 3 p. m. for the fourth quarterly conference. All members of the official board should be present, and others are welcome.

The altar at the Community Church was beautiful on Easter Sunday with the potted plants given by the Dalgaard grocery, the Ernest Nielsen family and by Mrs. Virginia Whittemore in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bray.

The Sacco family has moved into the house on the corner of Grand and McKinley avenues, formerly owned by Mrs. Beatrice Sherwood. Chief Petty Officer Jos. Botts who has been visiting his wife and son at the Leo Barnstable home left Tuesday morning by plane for his naval base at San Diego, and leaves Friday on his ship for Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Krook and Mary Kay of Grand Rapids, Mich., came last Friday and spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kapple and Waukegan relatives. Other guests at the Kapple home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rothers and family of Berkeley and the Edwin Kapple family of La Grange.

The P. T. A. is sponsoring a pot luck dinner and dance Saturday, April 30, at the Lake Villa School gymnasium. The dinner will start at 7:00 and the dancing at 8:30. There will be modern and square dancing with music by Bob May's orchestra and caller Harold Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Linderman, nee Joan Troesch, of Rte. 59 welcomed their second son on Thursday, April 7, at Victory Memorial hospital, and on Saturday, April 9, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Weber welcomed their second son at the Evanston hospital.

Major William Walker of the U. S. Army Air Force stationed at Greenville, Miss., spent a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker east of the village over Palm Sunday, and his cousin, George Walker, Jr., of Portland, Ore., was a guest of the Walker family on Sunday. He had attended a lumber convention in Chicago and was on his way to Detroit, Mich., and Pittsburgh, Pa., on a business trip.

Janice Sebela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sebela, underwent eye surgery at the Lake Forest hospital last week and we wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schneider and daughter went to Waukesha, Wis., on Easter Sunday to visit the parents of Mrs. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Douglas, who formerly lived here.

Mrs. L. J. Tweed has returned home after spending a week at the home of her son, Junior Tweed while his wife was in the hospital with their new daughter, Carol Ann, who is now two weeks old.

Legion Spring Dance
The third annual Spring Dance sponsored by the Lake Villa Township post 1219 of the American Legion will be held at 8:30 p. m. Saturday, April 16th at the Venetian Village Community hall. Popular and old time music will be furnished by the Rhythm Kings of Chicago.

This dance is the grand occasion of the season and those who attend are sure of having a very pleasant evening, as a special consideration, a rose corsage will be given to each lady.

The next regular meeting of the post will be held on April 19 and all members are urged to attend.

Cancer Crusade Opens
Volunteers taking part in the American Cancer Society 1955 educational and fund raising crusade during the month of April have two jobs to do, says Mrs. John Brandt, A. C. S. co-chairman for Lake Villa. "One job is collecting money," she explained, "but these volunteers are helping to carry out the Society's year-round campaign of education about cancer-control. With informative literature and with verbal answers to questions that keep coming up they are driving home a message all-important to the future health of every person in Lake Villa."

"Through such volunteers, people all over the country are learning the facts about cancer control. They are learning that in countless cases, cancer is curable; that it must be treated early; that it does not cure itself, but must be treated properly by x-ray, radium or surgery."

"Cancer is not a disgrace, and no one should be ashamed to seek help for it, the volunteers in the campaign here emphasize in their talks with people all over Lake Villa. They point out, too, that cancer is neither contagious nor inherited; that pain is seldom an early symptom, but that most cancers give an early warning in other ways, and notably by seven particular signals."

"Lake Villa's quota in the present drive for funds is $350.00, which was set as its share of the Lake County goal of $36,500. All such money goes to support the A. C. S. three part program," Mrs. Brandt said, "a program that embraces research to discover new and more effective methods for curing cancer, service to patients, and professional and public education. Sixty per cent of what is collected in Illinois remains in the state to finance the state and community programs of cancer control."

"Research supported by the American Cancer Society is designed to lead to discoveries of ways and means which may eventually wipe out mankind's cruellest enemy. Meanwhile, widespread education get more and more people to take advantage of successful cancer treatments now available. And service to patients will aid those who need sick-room necessities and comforts," Mrs. Brandt concluded.

TV
Stuff

By JACK SEIB and JOHN SHERBET

A customer told us at COURTEOUS TV that she tuned-in a station more than a thousand miles away. "How come, I thought about 70 miles distance was the limit?" she asked.

It is true that TV has a very limited range. The sending antenna sprays a signal in all directions to the horizon; commonly called "line of sight" transmission, being about 70 miles and depending upon the heights of antennas.

However, some of the signals go upward also, and disappear into outer space. It is when these signals bounce back to earth that you receive these long distance pictures. They are called freak signals and bounce back to earth because of weather conditions or the effects of sunspots on the earth's atmosphere. Sometimes a signal will bounce several times between earth and outer elements and reach great distances.

This happens infrequently and cannot be controlled. It can spoil good reception for many hours. There is no damage caused by it. To be sure of getting to the bottom of any TV problems, phone Antioch 144. We give continuous service and guarantee it.

Want to feel like a pilot feels?

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

Today's the day to "Join The Test Pilot Club" and see what a thrill you get when you try Variable Pitch Dynaflo*

We're not kidding.

When you try a '55 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo, you'll feel like a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway for take-off.

For you, in the driver's seat, are doing what that pilot does—you're changing the pitch of your propellers—one way for instant response on getaway—another way for better gas mileage in cruising. Your propellers are whirling in oil, deep inside the Dynaflo unit. When you press the pedal in the normal way, you hold those propellers in their economy angle—and you enjoy plenty more miles from your gasoline.

But when you want instant acceleration—for quick getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of emergency power—you just press the pedal way down, and—with absolute smoothness—you get the action you want, and split-second quick.

It's the thrill that's the talk of the industry—performance unlike anything you have ever known before on the ground.

And so many folks have been asking to try it that we Buick dealers across America have set up April as "Test Pilot Club" Month. All it takes to join the "Club" is a test drive at the wheel of a new Buick. That's all.

So we cordially invite you to win your "wings"—to try the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo—and to feel the mighty V8 power that puts the whip to these gorgeous new Buick beauties. Drop in this week.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL $2299⁸⁸

2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan,
Model 48 (Illustrated) is Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargain, such as Heater & Defroster—$81.70; Radio & Antenna—$72.50.

Thrill of the year
is Buick

Said a sleuth: Ah! The mystery's unravelin'—
About cars that "take off like a javelin."
But with Dynaflo's switch
Of its Variable Pitch—
You were here. Now you're there.
Boy, that's travelin'!

Gas Company Notifies 30,000 Customers They Will Get Gas Heating

Northern Illinois Gas Company reported today to the Illinois Commerce Commission that letters would be mailed out this week to approximately 30,000 customers authorizing them to use gas heating equipment under the terms of the Commission's gas restriction order.

The company said that the new authorizations would cover all individuals who had applied on or before February 3, 1953, for existing homes, and on or before May 11, 1953, for new homes. Gas heat allocations are permitted only for single family dwellings and are based on the ratio of requests in each group. Those so authorized have 12 months in which to complete their installations. Gas heat previously had been authorized for all those who had applied on or before September 19, 1952, for existing homes and on or before November 19, 1952 for new homes.

Marvin Chandler, president of the company, said that the additional gas heat authorizations are made possible at this time by the installation of additional propane storage facilities, together with more extensive utilization of the utility's own local storage facilities in coordination with the withdrawal of gas presently available in the Herscher dome storage project.

The propane storage installations, which will be made in three key locations in the company's service area at a cost of about $800,000, are now considered feasible after a careful review of operating experience during the last heating season. Chandler explained that only limited amounts of propane gas can be mixed with straight natural gas if proper burning characteristics are to be maintained.

There still will be more than 100,000 on the waiting list after the present authorizations, Chandler said, and the company is hopeful that the continued development of the underground storage project of the Natural Gas Storage Company of Illinois at Herscher will make it possible to add more residential gas heat customers to the system later this year. The storage company now has a request pending before the Federal Power Commission seeking permission to triple its output from the underground storage.

Meanwhile, Chandler emphasized, the company is making every effort and sparing no reasonable expenditure to bring gas to more applicants as soon as possible.
